ABOUT US

William Brownie (Bill) grew up with a genuine fascination about manufacturing food. In the late '50s, Bill started his journey, commencing a cadetship at the age of 16, followed by a food-technologist degree and in 1964, Steric was established.

What started as a small manufacturer based in Kogarah, NSW, now days plays a crucial role in the Australian food manufacturing landscape. This 100% Australian Family owned business provides many private label products, sold under various brands, across the grocery retail market through all groups. There is no doubt that most pantries and cupboards in homes all across the country have held a Steric product in them.

Since 1964 the business has grown considerably, with Bill incredibly proud that two of his sons have joined the family business and propelled it forward.

Behind the scenes are robust Product development and QA teams who ensure safe manufacturing practices are maintained as Steric aims to be one of Australia's finest FMCG suppliers of both branded and private label products.

Bill also wanted to have his products available for chefs to enjoy with their customers, so in 1986 Steric Foodservice was created to focus on the foodservice industry. Food distributors all over this great land can access these quality products through food distributors, located in every state.

Recently winning a national award as the 'Rising Star' from an industry group, gave the business (and Bill) great pride that this 100% Australian Family owned business continues moving forward.

"From my father before me and to the future generations of our Family, thank you for looking through our product catalogue and we look forward to providing flavours and tastes for you and your customers, to enjoy!

mary mack's

Some 30 years ago Mary and John McCormick opened a fish and chip shop in Innisfail. After realising they needed to be different than the other shops in the region, they created a quality easy-to-mix ready-made batter. Famous in northern Queensland, this batter is high quality and the choice in the north!
